

Your FAFSA was selected for review in a process called Verification. You must complete this process to receive federal student financial aid. In this process, your school will be comparing information from your application with copies of your (and your parents') 2023 signed federal tax return or tax transcripts and other financial documents.

What you need to do:

- Collect your (and your parents') financial documents.
- Complete and sign this worksheet.
- Submit this completed worksheet, signed tax return or tax transcripts, and any other documents required by your school.

What the Law Says:

- Crown College has the right to ask you for this information before awarding federal aid.
- We must review the required information (under financial aid program rules, CFR Title 34, Part 668).
